

Holy Cow! The NAB is afraid of competition and wants our government to stop it? This is not right. Our country was founded on the principles of freedom, courage and virtue. We have a right to listen to and PAY FOR whatever radio station we choose AND that radio station has a right to broadcast the kind of information its listeners want. Please consider carefully what this vote means for free enterprise and a healthy competitive economy.